BIG INTERESTS INVOLVED IN CERTIFICATE OF SALE

J. H. Murry & Co. Incorporated with a Capital Stock of $200,000.

OTHER NEW CONCERNS

A certificate of sale, with papers of incorporation, involving one of the city's largest business deals made this year, was filed yesterday with the secretary of state. J. H. Murry & Co. is the new concern, capitalized at $200,000, of 200 shares of $100 each. Of this $75,000 is preferred stock. All of the preferred and all but $300 of the common stock will be used to purchase from J. H. Murry the business heretofore conducted by him. The following shall serve as directors: John H. Murry, William S. Wickard and Elsie C. Wickard. The Consumers' Supply Company was also incorporated by local parties. The company, capitalized at $100,000, will carry on a general oil and gas-drilling business. The incorporators are John E. McGuffin, Lewis F. Horton and Carl L. Wilkey. The Green River Coal Company of Kentucky, capital $100,000, was admitted to Indiana. Stock represented, $50,000. O. W. Minnie, of Evansville, is agent for Indiana.

Other incorporations were: Warwick Loan and Savings Association, Bloomington, Ind., by S. R. Hatfield, C. M. Hammond, R. S. Moore and others. Citizens Bank, Princeton, Ind., filed certificate showing paid-up capitalization of $50,000.

Wayward Girl is Sentenced.
Zella Dohman, who a few weeks ago was missing from her home and recently was found at the Zimmerman roadhouse in West Indianapolis, was arraigned in Juvenile Court yesterday before Judge Stubbs and given a suspended sentence to the Girls' Industrial School. She was taken to the home of her grandfather, Robert Lee, in Boone county.

In her testimony it was shown that she was induced to go to the roadhouse.

New Schedule on Traction Line.
The following schedule went into effect this morning over the Indianapolis & Northern traction lines: Cars leave the company's office at 4 o'clock, and so on every hour, where they run along Fall creek and the passengers are transferred to the regular interurban cars, which await them on the other side of the bridge.

DOWNPOUR OF RAIN GREETS THE VISITING TEACHERS

Weather Plays Part in Reducing Attendance of Delegates from Southern Indiana.

MAYOR GIVES WELCOME
Ohio Educator Refers to Far Eastern War in Witty Address at Tomlinson Hall.

Under circumstances as unfavorable as could have been furnished by an unpropitious fate, with a downpour of rain and frequent flashes of lightning, the twenty-eight annual convention of the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association met for its first session in Tomlinson Hall last night.

The state of the weather was responsible for the reduced attendance. Two thousand teachers were expected at the convention. But few hundreds attended the first session. Despite this those who attended heard several strong addresses, and a good musical programme.

An organ recital by F. A. Hamp, Jr., preceded the addresses. The selections included: "Poet and Peasant," overture; "Largo," harp accompaniment; "Communion in G," Ballade, and "Pilgrims' Chorus," from "Tannhauser," Wagner.

Following the invocation by the Rev. Joshua Stansfield, of the Meridian-street M. E. Church, Mayor Holtzman formally welcomed the delegates to the convention to Indianapolis in behalf of the city. The mayor said he was sorry he could not welcome the teachers to better weather, but that he hoped those conditions would be improved to-day. He dwelt on the vocation of the teacher, saying: "Those of you who teach the lessons of the text-book are not doing enough--it is more essential to teach the child the duties and the moral obligations of life."

In an extended address following Mayor Holtzman, A. M. Sweeney, president of the Indianapolis Board of School Commissioners and former president of the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association, welcomed the teachers to the city in behalf of the Indianapolis public school system.

In enumerating the school advantages of the Hoosier capital, Mr. Sweeney gave the following among other things: The city has a public school system, which is the largest in Indiana, with a total enrollment of 15,000 pupils.

SCHOOL STATISTICS CITED.
"Indianapolis has fifty-eight elementary school buildings, representing an aggregate value of approximately $1,500,000. The city's expenditures for new buildings and repairs every year is about $75,000. In these schools 30,000 children are enrolled, with an average daily attendance of 25,000. There are in elementary and high schools a total of 715 teachers, receiving a total salary in a year of over $500,000."

Mr. Sweeney characterized politics as the bane of the public schools, but dwelt on the fact that the Indianapolis school system is free from this.

Superintendent Edwin S. Monroe, of Frankfort, president of the association, spoke on "The Utilities in Public Education." He discussed the importance of a manual and a business education for the child, saying that "a school must not only produce a good man, but a good man who is something." The difficulty of holding children in school after their elementary education was discussed by Jacob Miller, of the Indianapolis Mannerchor followed the president's address with singing "Treuer."

By H. M. Smith, the audience liked so well that the singers were recalled. The address of W. H. Scholmer, of Ohio Wesleyan University, the last of the evening, was a brief but brilliant effort. Dr. Bashford spoke of "The Outlook."

The speaker, who was in good humor by beginning: "As I rode from the board of the president of the Indianapolis school system, I saw myself, surely Indianapolis is the Venice of America."

Lauding abruptly into the consideration of his main topic the speaker referred to the war in the far East, and received an indication of the tenor of his audience when he was greeted with a round of hearty applause on declaring: "I don't know about you feel about it, but I am praying for Japan. But we don't want Japan to win too great a victory, for then we might have a yellow peril on our hands."

"Whichever side wins," continued the speaker, "China will come out into modern life in ten or fifteen years, and the fact that over 400,000,000 of the human race will emerge from the lethargy of centuries, and America must play the game of helping these people to find themselves."

DR. BASHFORD LAUDS JAPAN.
Dr. Bashford then dwelt on the opportunities that have opened to America by its recent expansion in educating the nations of the Orient and in bringing them to civilization.

"I pray God," said he, "that the sun may never set on old glory until the Son of Righteousness arises with healing in His wings."

The speaker cited the fact that railroads in China are paying dividends of 10 per cent. on the investment, and created a ripple of laughter by saying: "I sometimes believe that Americans would lay railroads in the lower regions if they could draw 10 per cent. dividends."

In spite of the seeming digression of some of his statements, the speaker concluded with the words: "I am glad to see that America must not exploit the Orient, but must lift it up and serve it."

At the conclusion of President Bashford's address Superintendent Kendall, of this city, announced that Bliss Perry, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, who had been announced as one of the speakers of the convention, was unable to attend it because of sudden illness. In his place the management has secured Dr. Charles W. Dabney, president-elect of the University of Cincinnati.

President Monroe announced the members of the committee on resolutions J. F. O'Connell, Cannell, chairman; J. F. Thornton, of Indianapolis; Levi Fries of Evansville; C. N. Peak, of Franklin, and Miss Abigail Smith, of Mount Vernon.

The committee to audit the books of the treasurer is J. K. Beck, of Bloomington, C. M. Marble, of Jeffersonville, and W. C. Goebel, of Greencastle. The nominating committee will be announced at this morning's 11 o'clock meeting.

To-day's programme includes sectional meetings at various points in the morning, the general association at Roberts Park Church at 11 a. m., and a general association at Tomlinson Hall this afternoon and to-night.

Pupils and teachers of Shortridge High School have been doing all in their power to entertain the teachers in the city. Krieger is attending the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association meeting. About 100 visited yesterday and many more are expected to-day, when several lectures will be given by a number of the visitors in the school library.

MAN SNATCHES PURSE AND LEAVES UMBRELLA
In Haste to Flee, Thief Leaves Young Woman a Valuable Reminder of Robbery.

Miss Bertha Lovett, 612 North Delaware street, was attacked by a man at the corner of the alley just north of Michigan on Delaware street last night. The man snatched her pocketbook and ran. In his haste to get away he dropped a silk umbrella, which was later picked up by Bicyclemen Hull and Griffin, who were summoned.

Miss Lovett gave the officers a description of the man.

Workhouse Prisoner Dead.
James Wells, a negro, died of heart failure in his cell at the county workhouse just before dinner. Wells was sent from Police Court on Feb. 19 on a sixty-day sentence for petit larceny. As far as could be learned he had no relatives in the city. Coroner Tuttlewiler took charge of the body.

Fugitive is Arrested.
Fred Mann, a fugitive from justice wanted at Greencastle, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Simons and McGuff. The authorities at Greencastle were notified and Sheriff Cooper, of Putnam county, will take the prisoner there to-day.

BROWN AGAIN INJECTS POLITICS INTO BOARD

Park System Endangered by Action of President, Who Takes Orders from Keach.

DOES BOSS'S BIDDING
Wants All Democrats Appointed in Violation of Long Established Rule.

Yielding to the repeated importunities of J. L. Keach, erstwhile Democratic dictator in Indianapolis, and to his representations that certain of the Democratic faithful must "be taken care of," it is expected that President Hiram Brown, of the Board of Park Commissioners, will attempt, at this morning's meeting of his board, to completely change the settled policy of the Park Board by appointing as custodians of the smaller parks of the city a number of Democrats without any reference whatever to their fitness for the position or to their experience in park work.

President Brown gave an intimation of his intended action at the meeting of the board two weeks ago, when he "turned down" the list of custodians recommended by Park Superintendent J. Clyde Power, a thing never before done in the history of the Park Board. The Journal was informed on good authority yesterday that Mr. Brown will present his own list of custodians at this morning's meeting, every one of them a Democrat and but one or two of whom have ever had any experience in park work. To make Mr. Brown's appointments it will be necessary for him to secure the vote of Mr. Coffin, one of the Republican members of the board, and this, it is believed, he cannot get on that kind of a proposition.

The settled policy of the Park Board is well stated in a resolution adopted at a meeting of that body held April 19, 1901, as follows:

"Resolved, That no appointments shall be made to the grades of skilled labor, in foreman, watchman or custodian, except from the ranks of employees in the next lower grade where their services have been satisfactory to the board and the superintendent. This order shall be in force on and after May 1, 1901."

Several efforts have been made by President Brown to inject politics into the affairs of the Park Board, but this is the most decided step in that direction which has yet attempted.

CHURCH OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN AT MEETING
Membership Is Increasing, According to Reports--Society Organized.

The regular annual meeting for the election of church officers and the hearing of the reports on church and Sunday-school work was held at the West Washington-street Presbyterian Church last night. The church was shown to be out of debt and to have an increased attendance. Jacob Miller was elected a trustee and D. H. Fatout an elder.

A new organization, called the Ladies' and Pastor's Union, was formed. The purpose is to help the pastor in his duties. A committee was appointed to secure new hymnals for the church.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR MORRIS FUNERAL
Names of Honorary and Actual Pallbearers Announced--The Rev. Odell Officiates.

The funeral services of the late Gen. Thomas A. Morris will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian Church, the Rev. O. D. Odell officiating.

The honorary pallbearers will be William H. Hubbard, Dr. P. H. Jamison, Gen. H. Coburn, Gen. George F. McGinnis, F. A. W. Davis and James Suit.

The actual pallbearers will be nephews of General Morris--Morris De Fries, John Furgerson, Morris Ross, E. C. Morris, Horace Hayes and Owen Moore. The interment will be at Crown Hill Cemetery.

POLICE MAY ENFORCE VEHICLE-TAX PAYMENT
Many Persons Are Delinquent, and May Pay Under Pressure.

About four-fifths of the owners of vehicles in Indianapolis are now subject to a fine of $10 for violation of the city ordinance requiring the licensing of vehicles.

The ordinance requires that the license fees must be paid before March 31 of every year, and it was said at the controller's office yesterday that not more than one-fifth the owners of vehicles in this city have paid their licenses. Unless those who still owe the city on this account pay very soon it is probable that the police department will be called upon to serve warrants upon the delinquent ones.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED TO IMPROVE STREAM
Pogue's Run Matter Is Referred to Committee of the Commercial Club.

Pogue's run will hereafter be held in check, with no possibilities of a further flood, if the resolutions of the stream and bridge improvement commission are adopted by the Board of Works. The resolutions were referred to the Commercial Club.

Ring Circle Shows Growth.
The importance and growth of the State Teachers' Reading Circle is shown in figures recently compiled, showing the number of books from the circle lists purchased and read by Indiana teachers. Up to 1903 352,461 books had been circulated, and to this number has been increased to 466,512, a gain of 114,051 which have been added. Larceny county leads with 16,392 books, the lowest county having 611. Each county's average is 5,671.

G. A. R. Rates Same as Formerly.
A recent statement concerning the rates granted by the Central Passenger Association for the Indiana G. A. R. encampment to be held at Warsaw in May left the impression that a higher rate was made for the Indiana encampment than for the Republican encampments in other States. This is erroneous. All the rates for the State encampments have been made on precisely the same basis this year.

Returns from Chicago.
Capt. H. S. New returned yesterday from Chicago, where he has been making preliminary arrangements for the Republican national convention. He says matters are now in a very satisfactory shape, and he does not expect to go to Chicago again before May 1.

SKYSCRAPER IS FLOODED
WHEN PIPE SPRINGS LEAK

Two Feet of Water on Third and Fourth Floors of State Life Building.

SALVAGE CORPS CALLED

The stoppage of a drain pipe in the State Life building last night caused the third and fourth floors of that building to be flooded. Water ran down the stairs and into the basement, which is occupied by the New York Store.

Capt. J. F. Newman, of the salvage corps, was called and soon extracted the waste which had collected in the pipe. The water on the third and fourth floors reached a depth of two feet. It did not get very deep in the basement on account of the quick action of the salvage corps in turning its direction and heading it into the engine room, where it entered another drain pipe.
